

CALL FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT EMPLOYEES

The Quincy Art Center is seeking high school students and 2019 graduates to apply for two paid summer Student Employee positions through our Illinois Arts Council Summer Youth Employment in the Arts Project Grant. Students currently enrolled in high school and 2019 graduates are eligible to apply. Applicants should be interested in pursuing careers in the visual arts and able to commit to the entire ten weeks. The Student Employee positions are scheduled for June 4 – Aug 9, 2019 at 20 hours per week. Compensation is $10 per hour.

The Student Employee's specific responsibilities:

- a. Assist Art Instructors with Art Camp Classes, Outreach activities, and other Art Education Programs.
- b. Perform daily studio and classroom maintenance.
- c. Assist Exhibition Preparators and Curator with exhibit preparation.
- d. Assist with office administrative duties.

The Student Employees will gain knowledge of art education teaching strategies, concepts, and implementation techniques. Other education skills attained will be classroom management, mentoring, and performing as a leader. Education and studio job responsibilities will lead to expanded knowledge of art processes, care of art materials, and appropriate maintenance of studio equipment. The Student Employees will learn about the process of selecting artwork for exhibit, care & documentation of an art collection, and installing an exhibit in a gallery. The Student Employees will learn about nonprofit operations through office administrative tasks. The vast amount of experience gained will truly benefit a student employee that is pursuing a career in the visual arts.

The primary supervisor of the Student Employees in all education tasks will be the Director of Education and Volunteers. The Director of Education and Volunteers will train the Youth Employees daily during the first week followed by weekly training meetings for the following weeks. Student Employees will assist Art Instructors during Art Camp class time. Student employees will report and be trained by the Curator and assist Exhibition Preparators when performing exhibition tasks. Near the conclusion of employment, a press release detailing the Student Employees' experiences will be sent to the local newspaper and featured in the Quincy Art Center publications. An exit interview will also be conducted to help the Quincy Art Center further strengthen the program for future student employees.

Applications are due Tuesday, May 21, 2019. To apply, please send a completed application form, letter of intent, samples of artwork, and resume to: Quincy Art Center, ATTN: Summer Youth Employment in the Arts Project, 1515 Jersey St., Quincy, IL 62301.
